(By Sal Truettner)

For those of you that have not visited the museum we have some very interesting things on display. For instance a canoe paddle made by David Shoppengon and given to Jess Sales when he was 10 years old. And we have the baby carriage that Mrs. Don Jansen used to ride around in when she was a baby. Also an old wooden water main used in the city of Grayling around 1900.

Some new things were loaned to the museum last week by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meaker. A tomahawk age 1850 and a civil war sword owned by Bob's grandfather who was paymaster for the northern troops. An ear phone around 100 years old. We have a set of dinner plates and soup plates from the old Grayling opera house. Can anyone give us any information concerning the old opera house?

And here is something none of us knew, Frederic had a newspaper. We have a December 11th, 1903 edition presented to us by Robert Gottfried from the Grayling State Bank.

A set of ostrich plumes that belonged to the late Pearl Gibbs mother, Mrs. Meaker figures they are around 125 years old...A set of Bone handle silverware (knives and forks with the date 1865 engraved on the handles).

Mrs. Lorne Douglas gave us the old Wellington Post office located in Beaver Creek in the home of Herman Benedict. She figures it must be about 95 years old. Some of the names can still be seen on the front of the pigeon holes. We have some repair work to do on this. We are grateful to the people for loaning and giving us things for the museum.

The Society also had a generous check from Ethel Taylor Pierce of No. Abington, Mass., given as a memorial to the late Hans Peterson. Ethel used to be a resident of Grayling and was the pharmacist at the Chris Olsen Pharmacy. We appreciated this gift and know that Hans would have taken a great interest in the museum. Do stop in and look around.

Grayling's Newest Industry

It was a little over a year ago when Mr. and Mrs. Mark Kirkum of New Baltimore, Michigan, stopped in to visit in the Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce office about the possibility of relocating their plant and operations somewhere in the northland.

One year later it has become a reality.

Automatic Specialty Co. Inc. and Mark II Industries, Inc., are now located in Grayling township. After 25 years in New Baltimore, Michigan, the Kirkums are now located in a modern manufacturing facility on the North Down River Rd. approximately one mile from the Grayling city limits.

The 7250 sq. ft. building is setting on 2 1/2 acres of land and was purchased from Grayling Industries through the efforts of John Naur of the Cornell Realty Co.

Mr. Kirkum is the President of Automatic Specialty Co. and Mrs. Kirkum is the Vice President. Mark Kirkum, Jr., is the Vice President and manager of Mark II Industries. Mrs. Karen Hellebuyck, the Kirkum's daughter, is the secretary and bookkeeper for both of the firms.

The Automatic Specialty Co. is a screw machine operation making component parts for the automotive trade, cameras, and instrument components for aircraft. Mark II Industries is the finishing operation for the parent industry.

In the move from New Baltimore were 8 families all employed by Automatic Specialty, or Mark II Industries including Donald Hale who is Superintendent for the parent concern. Both firms now employ 16 individuals, both male and female, on a two shift basis.

Mr. Kirkum stated that the reason Grayling was chosen for location of the firm was because of the friendliness of the community, fine schools, modern medical facilities, and the overall facilities which make Grayling an ideal place to live, work and play.

Earl "Chum" Longworth the President of the Grayling Regional Development Corp. stated that this is the type of industry Grayling needs to add to its year around economy. Small to medium non-pollutant manufacturing firms the Development Corp. certainly welcomes.

Houghton Lake Here Friday Vikes Over Hornets, 22-12

Grayling's Viking ship set sail in its 1974 maiden voyage last Friday night, and turned aside the Houghton Hornets, 22-12 in a non-conference grid-iron clash.

This Friday evening, the Vikes will be at home for another non-conference encounter with the Houghton Lake Bobcats, with game time set at 8:00 p.m.

At Harrison the Vikings won the toss, and 15 plays following the kickoff, Mark Hanson scored on a quarterback sneak, following center Larry Baynam into the endzone. Cliff Bonamie tallied the PAT, and the Vikes led 8-0 with just over 6 minutes gone in the game.

Both teams scored in the second quarter, with Tom Haskel scoring the Vikes TD on an 11 yard reverse sweep following the blocking of Bob Harris, Mark McNally and Hanson. Harrison's TD came on a 22-yard run by Brian Clickner. Both teams missed on the PAT, and Grayling held a 14-6 halftime lead.

Harrison closed the gap to 14-12 in the third period on a 6-yard scoring run by Brad Boulton, and pounded on the door several more times as penalties kept the Vikings deep in their own territory, and almost proved the Vikes undoing.

The tide turned in favor of the Viking ship in the final quarter, as Grayling's defense did the job holding the Hornets to a -7 yards, and set up the Vikes final TD, when Craig Hinkle knocked down a last minute pass from the Hornets endzone, to give the Vikings ball on the one yard line.

Bonamie closed out the scoring with a 1-yard plunge, and (See Football on page 12)

Board Drops Millage

The final reduction was made possible by eliminating carry over balances, and qualifying under section 27 of the State Aid Act.

Note: taxpayers approved a 1.5 mill increase in operational millage in June so the net decrease in property taxes for December 1974 will be 1.15 mills.

GRAYLING, MICHIGAN - THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1974

The Canals Are Filling In

The long preoccupation with Watergate, in the opinion of columnist Joseph Alsop, finally reduced Congress "...to an idiots' talking shop." The result is that crucial economic problems facing the nation were shunted aside. This must now change.

The most critical of these problems—the disappearance of investment funds to provide capital for needed expansion of jobs and industries—has led to what Mr. Alsop calls "...a near-panic on the long term money market. If this goes on and gets worse, we shall also have a panic on the short term money market. And that is the last step before a general bust." He also calls attention to the inability of "...solid and profitable utilities companies...to float..." modest bond issues. The failure of Congress to act on a tax bill that would provide investment incentives such as more understanding treatment of capital gains taxes brings to mind an analogy between the drying up of the money markets and the failure of Iraq's Mongolian conquerors in the 13th Century to keep open life-sustaining irrigation canals. Crops failed and famine became general. As noted by Mr. Alsop, "The role of water in an irrigation system is almost exactly comparable to the role of credit in a modern high technical economy.... There are at least 50 major industries, by...well-informed estimate, that now need to expand importantly to serve their markets."

A group known as The American Council on Capital Gains and Estate Taxation was formed sometime ago to support those tax measures which would expand the nation's economic growth and enhance employment opportunities. One of its goals is to further a more generous treatment of capital gains taxes as a means of stimulating the "capital formation" process—in other words, encouraging the financial mechanism of the private enterprise system which is essential to the functioning of the money markets and the prevention of what Mr. Alsop terms "...a general bust."

Congress and the public must recognize that unless the financial canals of the American economy are kept open, a job-and-living-standard famine will most surely follow.

Last Singing Telegram

Nostalgic memories of bygone days in America conjure mental pictures of torchlight parades, fireworks on the 4th, the old swimming hole and Model-T Fords. If personal experience doesn't go back that far, stories and movies and old family albums make the scene familiar to most of us. It is somehow comforting to know that at least one of these traditions of vintage America, the singing telegram hung on until very recent times. It was not until June 3, 1974, that the California Public Utilities Commission gave Western Union permission to discontinue its singing greeting service. This was the last state in America where the singing telegram was still available. Where can Western Union boys or girls with singing talent go now to offer their vocal gifts to an awaiting world?

Jackpot Game

The final drawing in the $1 Jackpot game will be held Thursday, September 12. Last week tickets are on sale through Tuesday morning, September 10.

The Jackpot draw-off for the game's top prize ($393,333 in cash or $20,000 per year for life) will be held at 2 p.m. at Northland Center in Southfield.

The Loser's Drawing for Jackpot tickets will be held at 1 p.m., September 19 at Centreville, following the regular weekly drawing at the same site.

All Jackpot tickets which did not win a prize are eligible for the September 19 Jackpot Loser's Drawing. Dozens of ticket holders will win $2,000 each.

Jackpot was a great success in its 8-week trial run. It will be back soon as a permanent Lottery game.

Long-grain Or Short-grain?
Long-grain rice, with grains four or five times longer than they are wide, is favored by American housewives because the grains will not stick together when cooked. Asians prefer short-grained rice, whose moist grains cling when cooked, because it is easier to eat with chopsticks.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

From Calvary Baptist Church

On Neo-Evangelicalism

Just as Neo-orthodoxy was a compromise between liberalism and Fundamentalism, even so, Neo-Evangelicalism is a compromise between Neo-orthodoxy and Fundamentalism. Just as Neo-orthodoxy tried to restore orthodox Christianity without an inerrant, infallible Bible, even so, Neo-evangelicalism is trying to unite all evangelicals without a clear stand upon the inerrant, infallible Bible.

The birth of Neo-evangelicalism was December 8, 1957, as Dr. Harold Ockenga, the first president of Fuller Theological Seminary, gave a detailed news release of the new movement. Most of the men in the central core of the new movement were born - again Christians. The resulting developments which brought unsaved men into Neo-evangelicalism, came about because of compromise with Neo-orthodox individuals.

Characteristics which have stood out during the development of Neo-evangelicalism include the following:

1. Originally Neo-evangelicalism stood for the inerrancy and infallibility of the Bible, but they called for a re-examination of this position. After 17 years of such examination, we see and hear of a growing number of Neo-evangelicals who reject the inerrancy and infallibility of the Bible. They begin to stress the importance of concepts over words, the person of Christ over the word of Christ, and the gospel over all other teachings in the Bible. They made a division between essential and non-essential truth in the Bible. Soon they were questioning the truthfulness of the "so-called" non-essentials.

2. Neo-evangelicalism has accepted the reason of the liberal over the literal teaching of the Bible concerning origins. In compromising the Bible with reason, they came up with Theistic Evolution as the answer. To justify this, they forced an allegorical interpretation upon a simple presentation of truth in Genesis.

3. The greatest unifying force in Neo-evangelicalism today is the growing movement called neo-pentecostalism. This sweeping movement based upon an over emphasis of a subjective relationship with the Holy Spirit is a growing authority in Neo-evangelicalism. The test of fellowship in many circles is no longer what you believe concerning the Bible, but is a religious experience you claim to have from the Holy Spirit. The groundwork for this movement was laid by Neo-orthodoxy in this country between 1945 and 1960.

4. The primary thrust of this movement is evangelism. There is a stress upon mass evangelism, saturation evangelism and personal evangelism. There are few homes in Grayling or the United States which did not receive some contact by this movement during the past year. They unite as many different denominations and beliefs as possible to spread some kind of a message concerning Jesus Christ.

5. The gospel of the Neo-evangelical has changed from a stress on the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus Christ, to a new thrust with a social gospel inherited from Liberalism and Neo-orthodoxy. The social gospel is not declared as a new gospel, but as part of the original gospel which the Bible Christians of the past left out.

6. Bible separation has been replaced with infiltration. Neo-evangelical leaders join hands with apostates and other false religious leaders in a united effort to reach all men with their message.

Neo-evangelicalism compromised with Liberalism and Neo-orthodoxy, therefore it is no surprise when reason, religious experience and pragmatism are substituted for the Bible as authority.

"Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offenses contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them." Rom. 16:17.

Northern Counties Association Discuss Federal Programs Here

Although President Gerald Ford is concerned about practices of the state and federal governments in passing on programs to counties without necessary funding, this did little to alleviate concerns of top officials from 18 northern Michigan counties during a meeting recently held in Grayling.

The awareness of the new President was passed on to members of Michigan Northern Counties Association by Dean Welch, Crawford County Commissioner.

Officials appeared heartened by the information at the beginning of a day-long session that mainly revolved around state or federally mandated programs.

In a discussion of continuing attempts to stem the rising welfare budget, President Welch Johnson, Montmorency County, warned, "It is the shadow across this nation now. Another depression could be the last of this form of government." Others brought out that Social Security funds are being diverted to welfare programs with a resultant decrease in money for these recipients.

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED—Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hanson were honored last Saturday evening, September 7th, in observance of their 50th wedding anniversary at the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon (Jeanne) Thompson. A buffet dinner was hosted by their children, Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Hanson of Buchanan, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Dean Hanson of Battle Creek, Lt. Col. and Mrs. David Hanson, and the Thompsons of Grayling. Over 50 guests helped the Hansons observe their anniversary.

Health Department budgets that force counties to assume greater costs, while state and federal governments reduce supplemental allocations aggravated many officials.

An attempt by the Department of Natural Resources to prohibit use of state lands for sanitary landfills brought forth much criticism. It appeared that many counties have attempted to meet the State Health Department standards for landfills with the expectation state land would be available for this purpose.

All counties reported they have been getting the run-around insofar as their proposal to reduce the number of inspectors required under the new State Building Code. This Code requires five qualified inspectors. These include individuals with state certification to inspect structural functions, electrical, plumbing and heating. The fifth person must be a plan review inspector.

"We don't want a new Social Services Department of building inspectors," Ray Winter, Otsego Commissioner, told the group. Added to their concern about the lack of qualified persons in sparsely populated northern Michigan, commissioners feared the added costs of these inspectors would price building out of reach of individuals.

The untaxed two-million plus acres of federal lands in the state, mostly in northern Michigan, was discussed. Frank Oldiges, Grand Traverse County, is to form a committee to work toward getting these lands on the tax rolls.

Membership in the Association is open to all counties north of Townline 16, a line roughly east and west from Bay City. Meetings are held monthly on the fourth Thursday in the Crawford County Building at Grayling.

A letter to daughter at college, II

Dear Christie:

As you know, this open letter is being written by popular demand. You demanded that I write it I want to retain my popularity with you. I wrote one to your big sister when she went away to college and you have always demanded equal time with your siblings, except in the kitchen.

The idea is that Old Dad should wax wise and sentimental, thus sending his children out into the world laden down with good advice and warm memories, as well as 150 tons of blue jeans and stereo equipment.

Well, I can remember advising big sister Karen to cool it, to smell all the daisies, and to save marriage for dessert. That was only 7 years ago and she has already made me a grandfather 3 times.

I give you the same advice. But I must admit I never sniffed a daisy that smelled as good as a grandchild nuzzled just below either ear. There is something to be said for ignoring your Dad's advice, and I just said it.

You remember, the week before you left for college, how your mother kept complaining she would have no one to talk to after her last daughter was gone. She claims I never talk to her because I can't see her, what with a newspaper growing out of my nose. And Eddie can't talk to her because he's only 16 and hasn't learned how yet. So you are probably wondering if Mother's fears of silence came true. If she ever gets off the phone, I'll ask her.

Chris, I have often razed you about being over-educated but under-informed. You got good marks in school but you were surprised to learn Abraham Lincoln was no longer President. You would be well advised to keep yourself more current these days. College students like to get involved in politics and social problems. They love to march in the streets and otherwise make their voices heard. I'm sure you'll want to join in these protests but it will be embarrassing if you suggest your classmates should boycott German products until Hitler gets out of Poland.

Actually, my windy advice to an 18-year-old daughter could be boiled down into 2 words and you probably wish I'd start boiling. So here they are: Be Fair.

Do not judge a person by his complexion, his accent or his haircut. Remember that what is fair for you is fair for the poorest slob on the other side of the classroom, or on the other side of the world. Don't make hasty judgments and if you can't say something nice about someone, shut your trap.

Chris, a few weeks ago I was writing about you and almost unconsciously typed the words I would ask you to never forget. I was telling about the woman who came into the office and whispered to the girl at the counter that she wished she had nerve enough to ask me for my autograph. You were the girl at the counter and you fell down laughing. "He's only my father," you said. And I automatically wrote:

I'd rather be her father than anything else.

Columinists fix focus on President Ford

More words have probably been written about Gerald Ford's elevation to the presidency (and Mr. Nixon's descent) than about any other political event in recent memory.

Herewith, without comment or classification, are just a few commentaries from competent observers which have struck my fancy:

WILLIAM V. SHANNON IN THE NEW YORK TIMES:

"The United States now has a president who looks and talks somewhat like Dwight D. Eisenhower, thinks politically somewhat like Harry Truman, and has the economic ideas of Herbert Hoover. It is an intriguing combination."

"The biggest thing that President Ford has going for him at the moment is that he is not Richard Nixon. He may, indeed, be the missing conservative that the country actually wanted to elect in 1968 but could not identify."

DAVID S. BRODER IN THE WASHINGTON POST:

"Jerry Ford is the most normal, sane, down-to-earth individual to work in the Oval Office since Harry Truman left. The question is whether we can keep from spoiling him."

"What's in doubt is how long the President can survive in the heady White House atmosphere without losing his sense of perspective about himself and his job."

"The essence of Ford's leadership, as everyone who knows him understands, is his skill in personal relationships. He likes to deal face-to-face with a wide variety of people, and he draws emotional strength and intellectual sustenance from those contacts."

RAY CROMLEY, NATIONAL EDITORIAL ASSOCIATION COLUMNIST:

"What is most likely under Mr. Ford is an administration which seems deceptively closer to that of President Eisenhower than to the presidencies of Nixon, Johnson, Kennedy, Truman or Franklin Roosevelt. The changes will be brought about so smoothly. There will be less excitement, events permitting, than we have had for some time."

"President Ford will concentrate on keeping the wheels running smoothly. He will hold off on major actions until everyone on every side has put in his two cents worth. He will work closely with Congress, with the press and with the representatives of foreign countries. His disagreements will be quiet and proper. He will attempt persuasion rather than argument."

JAMES RESTON, NEW YORK TIMES:

"The president begins with a great strength, but maybe also with a fundamental weakness, both of which come out of his experience."

"His strength is that he believes in open talk and the importance of good example. He is Main Street and not Madison Avenue. He is everything Richard Nixon merely pretended to be. For him, religion is not a role but a reality; he doesn't fake it but lives by it."

"Middle America, with its longing for a simpler past, is not a political tactic for Ford, but the center of his life. He is a symbol and witness of our regret for the moral values we have lost, and while many may scoff and sneer at all this, it is a powerful ethical and political force."

"His weakness, which is the other side of strength, is that he is a conservative partisan man confronted by staggering radical problems both at home and abroad. Good character and good intentions, important as they are, which are now changing the mood of Washington, will not by themselves deal with high inflation, prices, unemployment, and interest rates."

GODFREY SPERLING, CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR:

"Mr. Ford sees himself as President of all the people, both Republicans and Democrats in Congress."

"The less partisan he appears, he is convinced, the better chance he will have of pulling the country behind him and of persuading Democrats in Congress to support his legislative programs."

"Thus, the President not only is ushering in an era of good feeling, but he also is shaping a course that can only be called bipartisan."

"This is precisely the kind of presidential stance that, in the end, might turn out to be the best politics he could possibly play."

Land Use Planning Protects Water Resources

By Willard Bosserman, County Extension Director

About a year ago I met with Donald Piree and Dr. Dennis Tierney from the Michigan Department of Natural Resources. We met at Charles Trout's home to discuss some things that might be done to protect Higgins Lake. Central sewers were foremost on the minds of those present. But, Piree and Tierney said good land use planning was more important to protecting the Higgins Lake quality than was a sewer at this time.

I point this out to bring to your attention the importance of land use planning in protecting our lakes and streams. This isn't new to many people around here. Gerrish and Lyon townships were two of the first townships in Rosecommon county to enact zoning to implement their land use plan. Grayling township enacted zoning to implement their land use plan in 1966 and later updated it in 1968 to include green belt zoning to give added protection to the AuSable River. Crawford County enacted their zoning ordinance in 1969 with green belt zoning to give maximum protection to the river.

Gerrish Township is the first township in the two county area to enact a subdivision control ordinance. This requires an impact statement of potential developers, indicating their plans to control surface runoff which may end up in Higgins Lake. It provides for lots large enough so there will not be the congestion at the lake front that occurs where there is no plan at all.

It makes provisions for cluster developments so that the terrain can be most effectively used. The hills are not bulldozed into the low areas to make a square level subdivision. But, it permits homes to be built on more level areas. The low areas are left to act as sedimentation traps. The steeper hills are left undisturbed to protect them from eroding. Eroding hill-sides can endanger the houses built on the slopes. The sediments fill in road ditches designed to carry storm water away in a safe matter and free from polluting soil sediments.

Developments that protect our water resources don't just happen. People plan for them. They are implemented by zoning ordinances, subdivision control ordinances, building codes and other land use regulations.

ABWA Meets

Summer has been a very busy time for me and I'm sure all working women, but I'd like to apologize for not keeping everyone informed with the ABWA monthly news. Our meetings have gone on as usual, every 3rd Tuesday of the month. I'll try to catch you up.

The June meeting was held at Chief Shoppenagons Hotel with 25 members and 2 guests, Ruth Fenton, and Kathy White present. Dennis Freeman, manager from Glens Market, was our guest speaker for the evening. He filled us in on buying secrets and why some prices are as high as they are today and what to expect in the future. Being working women we buy a lot for convenience and this costs more, so with the help of a few of Dennis's secrets we may all have learned how to save on the grocery bills.

Carol Miller of Miller Hardware was the vocational speaker and told us all the duties that are hers in the hardware world. Ways and means held a silent auction that made us $21.00 for our scholarship fund.

Marie Akers read our correspondence and we had a couple of local organizations ask for our support. As individuals any member can support anything of their choice, but as an organization, ABWA is governed by National headquarters to be a scholarship organization. This is what all our funds go toward. We strive to be better Women in Business by better education. Getting ahead should be earned and this comes with education.

During July, August and September we are having our attendance contest. Everyone has been assigned to a team and each team will come up with a total score to decide the winner. To win you must attend all the meetings, your team is counting on you.

As you already know, June was a special month in that our Woman of the Year was picked. Elaine Harland received this honor. Eunice Schrieber was given special recognition as a retired member for her service in ABWA.

July 15th brought us back to the Hotel with 26 members and 4 guests. Judy Naas, Phyllis Sauter, Alan Beatty and Frank Scott present.

Our guest speakers for the evening were Alan Beatty, executive Vice President of Bear Archery and Frank Scott, Manager of the Bear Museum. They showed us a sneak preview of the film, "Rural Route One Grayling." This is a film of the Kodiak Magnum Bow, and shows it being made from raw wood to the finished bow. Grayling should be proud of Bear Archery's progress in the community. They now employ 720 people and have doubled business volume in the past 2 years. After the film our members asked questions about Bear Archery, which the 2 gentlemen answered. I'm sure everyone enjoyed their program.

Judy Crampton was vocational speaker for the evening. Judy has 2 jobs. She is co-owner of the Frederic Motel and a Feather Cutter at Bear Archery. This makes her a pretty busy gal. We honored our past presidents at the July meeting. They received carnation bowls.

Several Charms were awarded. Jacky Ruddy received a 25th commemorative charm from national for sponsoring new members. Jeanette Kitchen received a charm for being March enrollment tea chairman, and Tanya Peltto received one also for being chairman for the Woman of the Year committee.

The beautiful alphan that Edith Breckow made was raffled off and won by Gail Kwapis of Mercy Hospital. We made about $150.00 for the scholarship fund.

Our plans for the style show with the Milltown Festival fell through. Maybe next year with a little advance planning we can add to this event. I'm sure ways and means will come up with another biggy to make up for this one that didn't materialize.

Joan Hall was appointed chairman of the Education committee. Everyone shared birthday cake with Tanya Peltto, she said, "I'm 29 and holding!"

The August meeting was reported fully by our Vice President Elaine Harland, while I spent a week in the Upper Peninsula on vacation. Thank you Elaine, you did a great job.

Our September meeting will be a doubly important meeting. This will be our Boss night where we all honor our bosses by taking them out to dinner and nominating them for Boss of the Year. We also will have our 25th Silver Celebration enrollment at the same time. The date to remember is September 17th and the place to be at is the Chief Shoppenagons Hotel at 6:00 p.m. Let's have a great turn-out. Make this the best Boss Night ever and the biggest enrollment event our Chapter has ever seen.

Tanya Peltto, Publicity Chrm.

Millikin-Madsen Exchange Vows

Kathryn Elizabeth Millikin and Robert E. Madsen were united in marriage August 24, 1974 at four o'clock in the afternoon at St. Francis Episcopal Church. Rev. John Carlton officiated at the double ring ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Millikin and the son of Mrs. Betty Madsen and Howard R. Madsen, all of Grayling.

Mrs. Arthur Feldhauser, the grandmother of the groom, was the organist and vocalist. Musical selections presented were "Walk Hand in Hand," "Theme Song from Romeo and Juliet," also, traditional wedding music.

The bride chose a gown of sheer nylon over taffeta with cathedral train. The paneled front and bodice were of chantilly lace accented by seed pearls. Her cathedral-length veil was also trimmed with chantilly lace and she carried a single white rose on a white ribbon.

Members of the wedding party were Miss Dana Arwood, maid of honor; Miss Molly Millikin, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Michael Stillwagon were bridesmaids. They wore gowns of pale yellow polyester knit with white accessories and carried bouquets of white daisies.

Howard Madsen, a brother of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Jerry Madsen, another brother of the groom and Dennis Szczerowski. Ushers were Donald Lee Millikin, brother of the bride and Michael McNamara.

blue and white polyester knit with white accessories and corsage for her daughter's wedding. For her son's wedding, Mrs. Madsen chose a full length gown of light blue taffeta with white accessories and corsage.

A reception following the ceremony was held at the Officer's Club, Camp Grayling. Following a honeymoon at King's Island, Ohio and Southern Michigan, the newlyweds are making their home in Grayling.

Out of town guests attending were from Traverse City, Alma, Okemos, Ypsilanti, Roscommon, Williamston, Rogers City, Walled Lake and Mio.

Lansing Report

ENDANGERED SPECIES ACT SIGNED INTO LAW
Governor Milliken recently signed into law the Endangered Species Act which goes into effect on September 1.

The new law is designed to protect endangered or threatened fish, plant and wildlife species in Michigan and complements existing federal laws and international agreements designed to protect fish, wildlife and plants which are endangered or threatened with extinction.

Michigan's new law allows the Department of Natural Resources to enter into cooperative agreements with the U.S. Department of the Interior to manage Michigan species on the federal endangered list.

Once a federal agreement is signed, federal funds will become available to help protect and manage these species.

Currently considered endangered in Michigan, and on the federal list, are four species: Kirtland's Warbler, eastern timber wolf, blue pike and long-jaw cisco.

The DNR currently has a cooperative program with several agencies to create new habitat and protect the Kirtland's Warbler. The world population of this bird depends on successful nesting in jack-pines of certain age and density in Michigan's lower northern peninsula.

Most of the funds for the Kirtland's Warbler management program have come from private contributions, made through the Michigan Audubon Society.

The recent reintroduction of the eastern timber wolf in the western portion of the Upper Peninsula is an attempt to determine if Michigan still has suitable habitat for this species.

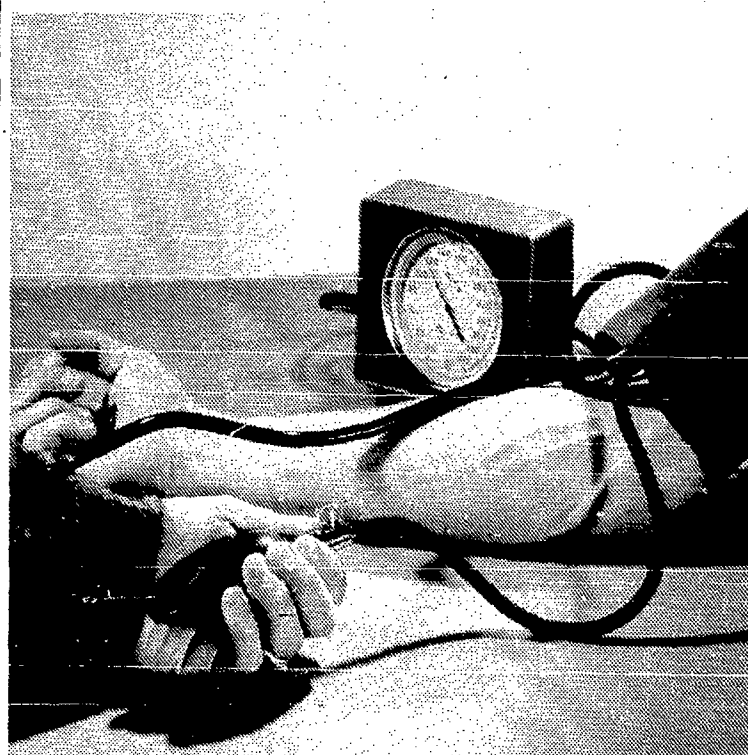

The transplant of five wolves from Minnesota was directed by Northern Michigan University with the assistance of the DNR's wildlife division and Minnesota biologists. In early July one of the wolves was found dead along a highway, an apparent car victim.

I have been informed that DNR wildlife experts feel that both the eastern timber wolf and the Kirtland's Warbler management and their chances for survival in Michigan will be greatly enhanced under the new state-federal program.

An additional list of specific Michigan animals which would receive protection under the threatened category will be developed by the DNR and will be reviewed every two years. Possible inclusions on the list would be such species as the Canadian Lynx, moose and prairie chicken.

Saturday evening I rushed off from a couple of buddies at a local Hammer Mill to watch my two very favorite TV shows - All In The Family and MASH. Only they weren't on. Some guy was singing. A quick check of the TV Guide showed they should be on, so I changed channels. Utter boredom on each, so back to 9, in the hope that if I couldn't watch Archie at least I would see those crazy guys on MASH. No way. At any rate, I finally discovered that I was viewing an Oral Roberts Special. Radio and TV evangelists have never turned me on, for the simple reason that I just plain don't like commercializing God, especially for personal gain and fame. And a full hour of CBS Class A time on a Saturday night runs into many hundreds of thousands of bucks. Anyway, I was about to turn the set off when Roberts announced that Anita Bryant was about to sing The Battle Hymn Of The Republic. That I had to hear, since she does a truly great job of it. And she did, too. I ended up with a wet face. I always thought that song should have been our national anthem, in spite of the ridiculous first line of the second verse - "In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the sea..." He wasn't born in the beauty of any lilies. He was born on a cold night in a dirty stable, but the author probably couldn't make that rhyme. As I sat there listening to the fading notes of the song, the screen went blank and then appeared the face of Roberts who wanted to "give away" his newest book. His pleading eyes reminded me of a wounded animal pleading for mercy, and the only thought I had was that Roberts would make one helluva fine used car salesman.

The whole thing was too much for me, so I turned off the set, the Battle Hymn still running through my mind. You know, anybody, Burt the Barber, Mac the Pill Pusher, Irving the "Doctor" or Super-Cal Sal could sing that song and I would probably "water up a bit," but maybe for different reasons.

One day last week I inadvertently admitted that I had been wrong, not once but many times over. Well, let me tell you, the hue and cry that was raised would have killed birds in the trees, and one of those who was giving me a hard time told a true story from his WW Two days in the Navy. He and a Lt. Commander in a torpedo bomber were about to torpedo some Japanese ship and he kept warning the officer that he was going to over-shoot, which he did. The second run was more successful, but back on the ground he said to the enlisted man, "I was only wrong once in my life, and that was when I thought I was wrong."

-JP-

The other night I saw a small twelve year old boy handcuffed to a juvenile official. It went against the grain, but I was assured that there was good and sufficient reason, so I kept my mouth shut. A State Police officer who was there said that kids like that were just as dangerous and unreliable as adults. Maybe so, but I didn't feel like arguing the point, especially since he had a large tracking dog on a leash. Instead I asked if the dog was friendly and could I pet him? He said sure, so I did. The dog, not even two years old, didn't respond at all. Depressing. I assume that affection had been trained out of him, or that maybe he didn't feel well. The officer said that just that day the dog had returned from the vets after the equivalent of a human hemorrhoid operation. I don't think I'd be very affectionate either.

To those who really care: Pray for Jack Millikin. He's in Ann Arbor following very serious surgery. Few could possibly deserve your prayers more.

A furnace check now can save you money this winter.

Your Gas furnace is so efficient and dependable, you probably take it for granted. But soon you'll be needing it again. And, just like every piece of good equipment, it does require proper maintenance. That's why we recommend an annual pre-winter furnace checkup by a licensed heating contractor. Everything will be put in top shape before the heating season begins. So there's far less chance of an inconvenient problem. It'll help hold down heating costs too, and will prolong the life of your Gas furnace.

Your qualified heating contractor will check belts, motor, blower, burner, pilot, thermostat and filter. He'll make adjustments, where necessary. Recommend repairs, if needed. Then come winter, you can expect everything from your furnace but trouble. Equally important, you can save Gas and money.

If you're one of our home heating customers, you've already received a card with the name of a licensed heating contractor who serves your area. There's a checklist that he'll follow, too. We strongly recommend you contact him—or any licensed heating contractor of your choice—and have your furnace checked now. Our Gas is your lowest cost fuel. Use it efficiently, and you'll save even more.

your week ahead by DR. A.W. DAMIS

Forecast Period: September 15 to September 21

ARIES Mar. 21 - Apr. 19	Changes that you have long had in mind can be introduced, to your associates, with a minimum of adjustment. Meaning? Now, is the time for new plans, suggestions and ideas.
TAURUS Apr. 20 - May 20	Stellar patterns alert you to the outside chance of running into legal snags. There's aid coming from an unexpected source, however. But, wait! Look for strings attached!
GEMINI May 21 - June 20	Remember, intelligence should be used for more than academic pursuits. In other words, use your head—in affairs of the heart—separate fact from fancy.
MOONCHILD June 21 - July 22	Hold it, Moonchild! Don't let your moods run amuck. Your associates will react to, and reflect, your attitude. Actually, you seek unwarranted sympathy, secretly.
LEO July 23 - Aug. 22	Increased activities and trafficking with persons below your station in life, shows in your chart. Many under your sign will seek the bizarre and clandestine.
VIRGO Aug. 23 - Sept. 22	There's an old saying that goes something like this: Our worst enemies are those friends who have failed in finding us profitable. Keep that thought in mind, this week!
LIBRA Sept. 23 - Oct. 22	It seems as though you'll be in the position of being someone who simply cannot afford to become angry. So, don't tamper with the idea of letting off steam!
SCORPIO Oct. 23 - Nov. 21	There's nothing of which men are more liberal than their good advice. Getting to the point, don't seek approval for what you know to be an unproductive relationship.
SAGITTARIUS Nov. 22 - Dec. 21	In spite of yourself, or rather your indifference, events related to your job, task or project, will improve. This week, you can do no wrong!
CAPRICORN Dec. 22 - Jan. 19	New ambitions and aspirations hit you as a fist. Apparently, you'll put the pieces together for a new project. Incidentally, your "ambitions" could include the opposite sex.
AQUARIUS Jan. 20 - Feb. 18	You're prone to promising more than you can deliver, during this cosmic cycle. It's singularly pointless to take on obligations that you cannot possibly fulfill!
PISCES Feb. 19 - Mar. 20	Most members of your sign won't be in the mood for social activities. You might seek more solitude than your daily routine permits.

Council Being Formulated

Plans are now being formulated for an "Advisory Council for Substance Abuse Services" to serve the counties of Wexford, Missaukee, Crawford, Kalamazoo, Grand Traverse, Leelanau and Benzie.

The council would combine similar councils concerned with alcoholism and other drug abuse in the seven county area in efforts to combine comprehensive services to the counties and agencies.

According to Scott Johnson, Coordinator/Administrator of the District #1 and Tri-County Health Departments Substance Abuse Program, participation on the new council is open to representatives of public and private agencies, but not limited to those directly or indirectly providing substance abuse services; client or patient groups or individuals directly served by substance abuse rehabilitation, treatment and prevention; and the community at large, including civic organizations, business and the like.

Johnson said the council would serve the coordinating agency in this area and would have several primary functions: —provide an opportunity for those within the applicants service area.

—provide comments on issuance of licenses to applicants.

—provide review and comment on an annual comprehensive plan developed by the coordinating agency.

—provide review and comment periodically on the progress and effectiveness of service delivery in accordance with plan.

—submit a written summary to the State of Michigan Department of Public Health Office of Substance Abuse Services.

—to serve as the sounding board for the community on substance abuse services and problems throughout the service area.

The council will have more influence in decision-making processes to allow for better community representation and community-based decisions and would be more active than any council in the past.

Johnson said the council will be a real asset to the coordinating agency, which District #1 and Tri-County Health Departments for the seven county area.

The functions of this coordinating agency will include:

1) Develop Comprehensive plans for substance abuse treatment, rehabilitation and prevention services consistent with the guidelines promulgated by the State Office.

2) Review and provide recommendations to the State Office.

on applications for licenses submitted by local treatment, rehabilitation and prevention organizations.

3) Provide technical assistance for the local substance abuse organizations.

4) Collect and transfer data from local licensed and accredited organizations to the State Office.

5) Submit an annual budget request for the use of State administered funds for substance abuse treatment, rehabilitation and prevention services in accordance with the guidelines established by the State Office.

6) Make necessary subcontracts in identical to the performance of its duties and execution of its powers. The contracts may be made with public agencies, private agencies, organizations, associations and individuals to provide substance abuse treatment, rehabilitation and prevention services.

7) Regularly assess and evaluate substance abuse services within its regions in accordance with guidelines established by the State Office.

The coordinating agency is given these responsibilities by Public Act 56 of 1973.

Persons interested in serving on the council or recommending individuals as council members, contact Johnson directly or speak with local board of health members. For Tri-County Health Department Board of Health: Mr. John Langworthy and Mr. Earl Glaesmer in Grand Traverse County; Constance Binsfield and Thomas Lindquist in Leelanau County; Dayton Willard and William MacLaurin in Benzie County. For District #1 Health Department: Fred Kaufman and Bernard Maurer in Crawford County; Foster McCool and Howard Dakin in Kalamazoo County; Jessie Heisel and Don Boscher of Missaukee County; or James Gibson and Clyde Glendening of Wexford County.

Because of our large geographical area financial systems for council members are at per diem rate and expenses have been requested of the State Office.

Lottery Bonus Drawing

Fifty cent Michigan Lottery tickets going on sale Tuesday, September 10th, qualify for a three-week bonus offering two thirds of a million dollars in extra prizes in addition to more than $1 million in regular prizes each week.

An estimated 36 winners per week will collect $100 per week for a full year (52 weeks) in the "Paymaster Bonus." A Loser's Drawing at the conclusion of the three-week bonus period will result in an estimated 108 extra winners collecting $1,000 each.

Tickets for the regular weekly drawing of September 19, September 26 and October 3 are eligible. Three (3-digit) bonus numbers will be drawn each Thursday and any ticket for that drawing date matching two of the three bonus numbers is a winner. An estimated 108 weekly bonus winners will collect $100 per week for a year from the Lottery "Paymaster Bonus."

All September 19, September 26, and October 3 tickets which fail to win a prize remain in contention for the Loser's Drawing on October 10. Again, three Loser's numbers will be drawn. A ticket with one of the three drawing dates (September 19, September 26 and October 3) matching two of the three Loser's Numbers wins $1,000.

If sales meet expectations and 108 weekly winners and 108 "Losers" are generated, the total bonus pay off will be $669,600.

Dear "Whiter"
I had a lot of response to my letter of two weeks ago and it was very gratifying. Not one person disagreed with me to my face or on the phone, and more than half of the letters and calls came from out of town people. Some I didn't even know. Some were out of town residents just passing through and others were summer residents. But they all wondered why Grayling didn't clean up.

Then I commenced to get calls from town people. They told me they had started to drive around and also walk and they were seeing things they had never noticed before.

Since my letter was published I know of two bunches of weeds that have been cut and three families that have removed about 3 tons of junk, so that makes the percentage of slobbs 39 1/2%.

This doesn't mean I don't like the people of Grayling. They are a lovable friendly group and would bend over backwards to help somebody in trouble. When I have solicited for funds for various things I always get about 98% response. That's great.

Jack Pine misconstrued some of my thoughts when he said I made a blanket condemnation and he spoke of the Booster Club. My letter made no mention of Service Clubs, Booster Club and all the others for which I have the highest respect. They are all doing a superb service to the community.

My letter was an effort to point out the physical aspects of our city in terms of being attractive. Each individual who resides here is or should be responsible for the looks of our city. I agree with Jack Pine that being an all round resort area we do get thousands of people that litter our streets but they don't have anything to do with weeds and the junk in people's yards.

He also said and I quote "There are not too many merchants that a personal chat wouldn't educate." He's got to be kidding. We have a few merchants here that you could beg, plead, try to shame and even threaten them and nothing short of a bomb would do the trick.

Now as I said before the City passed an ordinance about two years ago that they would send people a letter giving them so many days to clean up and if they did not do it, the city would clean it up and send them a bill. That ordinance is no good if there is no teeth in the law. Now they better get busy or I am going to camp on their doorstep until they do.

As for you Jack Pine, thanks for all the nice things you said about me but there are a lot of people who do just as much as I do and work hard for the city of Grayling.

Now this is just between you and me. You have the potential of a great columnist. In fact I have some of your columns clipped and saved. They are beautiful. Then you go off on a crazy tangent and write about all your aches and pains and your personal troubles and, you see nobody cares because they all have their own. Last week's column wasn't too informative, you hated female collection agents and you hated cats. You know Jack you never own a cat, they own you. You've met my cat Ivan. My friends don't like him and he doesn't like them and there isn't a day goes by that he doesn't outsmart me. That's why you don't like cats. You can't stand to be outsmarted and especially by a cat. Well enough of this. Let's hope we all get together for a good clean up. I still love Grayling and it's people, it's my home but I will still have to use the word you don't like until we get this town cleaned up. I STILL love you too.

Sal Truettner

Sept. 3, 1974
Letter to the Editor:
We, in the area of Oak Park at Lake Margrethe, are probably subjected to more harassment from trail bikes and motorcycles than are most other communities because we are in close proximity to Recreational Motors—the source of gas and supplies and repairs, and to Pine Knoll Campgrounds where a lot of these weekenders and summer vacationers stay. The graded, paved streets in and around Oak Park Hills is a favorite area to these riders, and a further drawing-card.

Approximately 90% of these bikes have no license plates. About the same percentage also have no mufflers, as such, and when they full-power up these grades, the noise is tremendous.

I complained last summer to the Sheriff's Department and to the Crawford County Prosecutor's office, with no results. Again this summer, I complained to the Sheriff's office, and requested information as to the laws affecting these abuses. I was informed that (1) motorcycles, trailbikes, etc., are prohibited from using the streets and highways without a license; and (2) they must be properly equipped with an efficient muffler.

I asked the officer on duty at the Sheriff's office, why there was no law enforcement on these bikes in this area. He stated they did occasionally patrol the area, but "were never able to catch them." Now I have spent probably 75% of my daylight time on my front porch this summer, and I have yet to see just one police cruiser go by. Further, I point out that, on any weekend, one has only to sit and wait on Oak Street, and there will be one or more of these bikes going by on the average of every 15 or 20 minutes, all weekend, and about every half hour or so, during the week, all summer long. From the above observations, it is my opinion that there is no law enforcement, and no effort to enforce the regulations on such vehicles. It has to be that, or else we must take the officer's word for it—law officers of the Crawford County Sheriff's Dept., are unable to enforce the laws we have on the books.

And if the plea is that there are not enough officers to do the job, seems to me that they can borrow a couple of officers from the very much overdone Marine Patrol on Lake Margrethe which serves no very useful purpose most of the time insofar as curbing of law violators are concerned.

And if we are to have no law enforcement of needful matters such as above, we might just as well send home our law-makers—no point in paying them for passing laws that won't be enforced.

Hospital Auxiliary

Summer is almost over, one wonders where it has gone so fast. School bells are ringing to call all the children back. Every household will go back to their winter routine. The ladies of the Mercy Hospital Auxiliary have not been idle this summer, in view of our "Holiday Tea and Bazaar" the ladies had a workshop at Camp Shopenagon every week. So keep your day open for October 24th - to visit the Bazaar and see the beautiful things which were made. My thanks to everyone who has worked and given their time so willingly. I never saw such workers - I think they are great. So please, if anyone of the ladies comes to you and asks for your help, open your hearts because it is for a good cause.

We are buying four beds for the Intensive/Coronary Unit and two of them are already in use. Sister Mary Hilda, all the doctors and Sisters are so grateful and thankful for the help of the Auxiliary. Their cooperation in the things we do is greatly appreciated. It is a pleasure to work with everyone of them.

My special thanks again for all the workers and the donations which came our way without asking.

Come to our "Holiday Tea and Bazaar" to have your lunch or coffee break on the 24th of October from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Mercy Hospital North Wing Dining Room. It will be a great day and best Bazaar we ever had - we hope anyway.

To the ladies who have worked at the desk and on the Gift Cart, my sincere thanks - I could not do my job without your help.

Prizes to be awarded at our Bazaar are a Christmas table cloth, 1 afghan (off-white), 1 stole, 2 $50.00 bonds and there will be door prizes.

Our ladies will deserve a good rest after our Bazaar and time for their own family Christmas.

Please attend our monthly meetings held in the Mercy Hospital North Wing Dining Room on Sept. 19 and Oct. 17 beginning at 1 p.m. Make your returns early and at the meetings.

Wilma Ludeman,
President

Knowing you have oil or gas on your land is one thing.

Knowing how to profit from it is another.

And that's where we can help. We're the National Bank of Detroit. And we're the only bank in Michigan with petroleum engineers on staff.

Which means, when you establish a trust or property management relationship with NBD, we can give you the level of advice and management skill you need to profitably maintain your oil or gas properties. We can keep you abreast of Michigan's mineral laws and regulations. And help you invest the proceeds from your oil or gas properties through a trust account.

In short, because of experienced people like Ray George, our Trust Division Vice President and Petroleum Engineer, we can help you find out how much your oil or gas properties are worth, help you get your money's worth out of them, and help protect and invest your money once you have it.

And don't think the idea of you making money in oil is far-fetched.

The Michigan area is the 17th largest producer of oil and gas today. By 1980 this production is expected to triple—to some 150,000 barrels per day.

So if you have oil or gas on your property now, or if you're an oil operator now, doesn't it make sense to get the facts on the benefits of a trust or property management relationship at Michigan's biggest bank?

Just call (313) 225-2912.

Notice of Special Contract Hearing Before The Michigan Public Service Commission

On May 31, 1974, Michigan Consolidated Gas Company applied to the Michigan Public Service Commission under $11 of 1909 PA 300 (MCLA 462.11), $4 of 1919 PA 419 (MCLA 460.54) and Commission Orders No. D-3096 and D-3096-50.2 for approval of a special contract dated May 13, 1974, which provides for the sale by Michigan Consolidated to Southeastern Michigan Gas Company of up to 2.5 billion cubic feet of gas. (Case No. U-4597.) The contract covers the sale of 1 billion cubic feet of gas delivered to Southeastern under a storage agreement and an additional volume of up to 1.5 billion cubic feet of gas to be delivered by October 31, 1974. The application states that Southeastern needs the gas to avoid curtailment of service and furnish gas to certain of its customers on a short-term basis.

On June 7, 1974, Michigan Consolidated applied to the Michigan Public Service Commission under $11 of 1909 PA 300 (MCLA 462.11), $4 of 1919 PA 419 (MCLA 460.54) and Commission Orders No. D-3096 and D-3096-50.2 for approval of a special contract dated December 24, 1973, providing for the sale by Michigan Consolidated to Southeastern Michigan Gas Company of up to 0.5 billion cubic feet of natural gas during the 1973-1974 and 1974-1975 winter seasons. (Case No. U-4601.) The application states that Southeastern needs the gas to avoid curtailment of service.

The applications state that Michigan Consolidated is able to sell the gas to Southeastern under both special contracts without detriment to Michigan Consolidated's ability to supply its present customers and continue to connect new users under its Controlled Service Program.

Both special contracts provide for a purchase price, per thousand cubic feet, of 87 cents plus purchased gas adjustment in effect under Michigan Consolidated's Rule 30. The applications state that this price will approximately equal the average price paid by customers who purchase gas under Michigan Consolidated's rate schedules.

A public hearing will be held at 9:30 a.m. on September 20, 1974, in the offices of the Commission, Law Building, Lansing, Michigan 48913, for the purpose of determining whether the approvals sought in the two applications should be granted. Any interested parties may attend the hearing and participate, subject to the provisions of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. Copies of the applications may be obtained from the Secretary of the Commission, Law Building, Lansing, Michigan 48913, the Secretary of Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, One Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Michigan 48226, or the Secretary of Southeastern Michigan Gas Company, 405 Water Street, Port Huron, Michigan 48060.

This Notice is published by direction of the Michigan Public Service Commission.
